

Relaxing ownership rules for media outlets will further diminish diversity of opinion available to the American public. Why is this goal so important to Republicans?